DOMESTIC AMENITIES.

It the Police Court at Shanghai on the 8th inst., before Mr J. C. E. Douglas, Police Magistrate, 'Harry Wilson' was brought up on a summons charging him with having been guilty of wilful neglect to provide reasonable maintenance for his wife and infant children, and by such neglect caused her to leave and live separately and apart from her husband.

Edith Wilson, sworn, stated that she was the wife of the defendant, who was a master mariner, and at present third mate on the 'Perla'. They were married at Hongkong on the 23rd May 1890. On the 24th January last her husband ceased to maintain his family. He gave no reasons for it. Witness then accepted employment as manager of a boarding house, and has been acting as such ever since the 20th January. Her husband told her because he had no work, and they had no money to live upon. Her husband was told to go away, never to return. It was only on that condition that she was given employment in the boarding house. He left her by mutual consent.

Cross examined:—Have you during your married life ever asked me for money and been refused specially at the present time?—Yes, specially at this time. You left me in January and came back on Friday last. You said that you would not give me any more money and threatened to get me out of the boarding house. It is quite true that you have always been supplied with money up to the 24th January last.

Have you asked me for money since my arrival here on Friday last?—I have not asked you for money because you said that you would not give me any more money. Harry Wilson, sworn, stated that he was a master mariner and had been for 24 years on this coast. He was at present third officer on the 'Perla'. It was a temporary job. He arrived here on Friday at 7 p.m., and his wife arrived with him. He had never supplied with money up to the 24th January last.

Defendant—I don't know. I leave to come back to Shanghai. I am willing to sign any guarantee regarding my pay. This trouble is due to my wife's relatives, who have gone back on me. I don't think there is any man who has spent more money on his family than I have. His Worship—Don't you think it better to leave your wife to support herself at least for a time?—I have no objection; certainly I have not.

Mrs Wilson said that she wanted to know what her husband had accused her of. He had accused her and had been guilty of cruelty toward her. He had said that both the children were not his. She wished to say that her name had never been taken away from her. Unless he proved his accusation, she would not have anything more to do with him. There was no slightest foundation for such an accusation. About seven years ago he shipped her and threatened to kill her. All their quarrels were always through nothing. He said he believed that most of the children were his but one. This one he said belonged to a certain German Captain. She told her husband that if he said that again he would be taken to court. Her husband was shouting so that every body in the hearing house could hear. In a boarding house one had to be above suspicion; any little thing became matter of general gossip.

In reply to the Court, Defendant denied that he had been cruel to his wife. This was merely a family squabble. He had nothing more to say and wished his Worship would dismiss the case as it stood. He was willing to give any guarantee. His Worship—Don't you think that it would be better to leave your wife to manage the boarding house?

Defendant replied that he had nothing to say on that point. His wife had started the hall rolling and she must finish it. He was never so surprised in his life as when he got the summons. He knew where all this trouble emanated from. His Worship said that he could make no order in the matter as Mrs Wilson had stated that they separated by mutual consent, and besides she had admitted that he had always kept her supplied with money until January 1st.

Mrs Wilson said that her husband went away with plenty of money, but did not give her anything. His Worship said he did not think that there was any serious difference between them as to preclude their making it up. There was nothing to justify the Court in granting an order of separation. It was open for them to arrange for a mutual separation, but the case must be dismissed. Mrs Wilson said that she could not have anything more to do with her husband unless he proved his accusation or took it back—Shanghai Mercury.

HONGKONG SHARE REPORT.

In their weekly share report, dated 13th March, Messrs Benjamin, Kelly and Potts write—

During the week under review, business has slackened off, but with the exception of China Sugars, Sumatra, and Langkate, rates otherwise have undergone no material change.

Banks.—Hongkong and Shanghai Banks have changed hands at $300 a share from the 15th March, 1903, in a South-Western direction. There is nothing doing in National.

Marine Insurance.—Unions continue to improve, and are now in demand at $530. China Traders have been placed at $58 and $59, and there are further buyers at the higher rate. North-Chinas have been bought at Tls. 195 and Tls. 200, at which latter price more shares are wanted. Yangtzes and Cantons are enquired for at quotations.

Fire Insurance.—Hongkong Fire remains unchanged with buyers at $305. China Fires are wanted at $31.

Shipping.—Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboats have been dealt in to some extent at $281 and $282. The Chinas have been in the earlier part of the week and sales at $112 were reported, but the improvement was only temporary and the market soon reacted, rather abruptly, to $108, at which also shares were sold.

Further transactions in Douglas Steamships have taken place at $43. China and Manilla have again been disposed of at $27. Star Ferries have further advanced and can be placed at $29 and $34, for the old and new shares respectively.

Shanghai Tugs have risen to Tls. 330, being a gain of 20 points on the last quotation. Cargo Bots have also appreciated in value and are in request at Tls. 105. Taku Tugs having paid their final dividend of Tls. 25 per share we now quote the stock at Tls. 50.

Refineries.—China Sugars have been considerably improved and sales at rates ranging between $100 and $111 have been effected, but as these are weaker with sellers at $110. Luzons are entirely out of favour at the moment.

Mining.—Punions have gone down to $24 at which rate small business has been done and further shares are in demand. Haubs are firm at $74. A private telegram from the South states that during the month, 7,722 tons of ore were crushed at the Mines for a yield of 1,444 ounces of smelted gold. Japanese have found buyers at 90 cents. Chinese Engineering have been sold in Shanghai at Tls. 8.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Hongkong and Whampoa Docks have been negotiated and are still asked for at $250. There is no change in Farman's Wharves, which have been bought at $22, ex the dividend of $23 paid to day. New Amoy Docks have changed hands and are in further request at $39. Hongkong Wharves are offering in Shanghai at Tls. 312, Yangtze Wharves at Tls. 114, ex the dividend of Tls. 6 paid in Shanghai to-day.

Land, Hotels and Buildings.—Hongkong Hotels have been taken off the market at $127 ex the dividend of $5 payable to-morrow, and more shares can be placed at this figure. Orient Hotels have been sold at $100 and $101 and shares are still wanted at $114. China Providents are still asked at $9 and are enquired for at $9.10.

Cotton Mills.—We have heard of no business in stocks under this heading. Cyber Companies.—Sumatras have experienced a substantial rise, and have been fixed at Tls. 624 and Tls. 65. The Company paid an interim dividend of Tls. 2 per share on the 7th August last and it is now proposed to pay a final dividend of Tls. 2.50 making Tls. 4.50 per share for the year. Philippine Tobacco have found purchasers at $20.

Miscellaneous.—Green Island Cements have been done to a large extent at $22 and $23, and close with buyers at the former rate. A. S. Watsons have changed hands at $14. Electric (old issue) have been dealt in at $14; the new shares are in request at $15.50. Geo. Fowler's are quoted at $40 ex the dividend of $3.75 paid on the 10th instant. China Bakers have been sold, and are still wanted at $10. A small lot of Campbell Moores have been disposed of at $40. Langkate, after sale at Tls. 280, have jumped to Tls. 350, and are in demand at this price. There appears to be solid foundation for the boom that has set in, as according to the report of the Shanghai-Langkat Tobacco Company, the working account shows a credit of Tls. 300,637.45 which added to the amount brought forward from last year's accounts brings the balance of Profit and Loss Account up to Tls. 912,834.90. Out of this, 20 per cent. in dividends amounting to Tls. 24,000 was paid during the year. The balance of Tls. 672,834.90 has been transferred to the Manufacturers' & Co. in Langkat.
